St. Bonaventure University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Accounting at the Assistant or Associate Professor level, subject to budget approval. The successful candidate will first demonstrate a commitment to quality teaching; research, leadership potential and service to the department are also required. Appreciation of and respect for the University’s Catholic, Franciscan mission is expected.

A primary teaching interest in Tax (Graduate) or Audit is preferred, but other areas will also be considered; a secondary teaching area (e.g., financial, business law, managerial) is expected. The ability to teach at both undergraduate and graduate levels is also expected. The candidate will also undertake scholarly research in a collaborative and supportive environment that welcomes inter-disciplinary and practice-oriented scholarship as well as education research, discipline-based and theoretical work. Applicants must meet the AACSB academically qualified (research academic) requirement. Service activities may include leadership roles as well as service learning and/or co-curricular activities. Accounting certifications (for example, CPA) and prior professional accounting experience are pluses.

Applications may be submitted online at accountingsearch@sbu.edu. For additional information please contact the department chair, Dr. Charles J. Coate at ccoate@sbu.edu or (716) 375-2277.

St. Bonaventure University is the nation’s premier Franciscan university. The School of Business, accredited by the AACSB, moved into its new state-of-the-art Swan Business Center home in Fall 2013. Accounting faculty, students, and programs benefit and receive support from the recently endowed McQuade Center for Accounting Excellence.

The Department of Accounting offers two program tracks: a 120-hour BBA in Accounting and a 150-hour BBA/MBA program in Accounting registered for CPA Exam qualifications. Our BBA/MBA graduates are highly recruited by “Big 4” and regional CPA firms as well as other large employers.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The position appointment is expected to begin in the Fall of 2016; however an early appointment is possible.

St. Bonaventure University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to fostering diversity in its faculty, staff and student body, and strongly encourages applications from the entire spectrum of a diverse community.
