Director of Sports Medicine

St. Bonaventure University, an NCAA Division I institution and a member of the Atlantic 10 Conference, is accepting applications for the position of Director of Sports Medicine. This is a full-time, 12-month appointment which reports to the Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations.

Responsibilities: The successful candidate will be responsible for supervising the medical care of all student athletes which includes coordinating the prevention, care and rehabilitation of athletically related injuries sustained by student athletes, developing necessary procedures and schedules, medical insurance claims, NCAA and university Drug Testing and supervising the operation of the training rooms. Incumbent will supervise 2 assistant athletic trainers, a graduate assistant athletic trainer and work study students, and interface with head coaches regarding the status of injured student athletes. Perform other duties as requested by the Director of Athletics.

Qualifications: Bachelor’s degree in Athletic Training or related field required; Master’s preferred. Candidate must remain in good standing as an NATA-BOC Certified Athletic Trainer. Must be First Aid, CPR, and AED certified; licensed to instruct preferred. Must be eligible for an athletic training license in the state of New York.

Applications will be reviewed immediately. Cover letter, accompanied by a resume and the names of three references should be sent to:

Director of Sports Medicine Search

c/o Stephen Campbell

PO Box G

St. Bonaventure, NY 14778

(p) 716-375-2599

(fax) 716-375-2383

scamp@sbu.edu

In light of its commitment to create and maintain a safe learning and working environment, employment with St. Bonaventure University requires successful completion of a background screening.

Founded in 1858, St. Bonaventure is a Catholic university dedicated to educational excellence in the Franciscan tradition. Located in western New York State, the residential campus is approximately 70 miles southeast of Buffalo on the New York/Pennsylvania border. St. Bonaventure University is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to fostering diversity in its faculty, staff, and student body, and strongly encourages applications from the entire spectrum of a diverse community.