Educational Leadership. The MSED Educational Leadership Program in the School of Education at St. Bonaventure University announces a tenure-track position for Educational Leadership at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank. Appointment will begin in the fall of 2016, subject to budget approval. The successful candidate will assume the role of program director, teach graduate courses and advise students in the MSED in Educational Leadership, School Building Leader and School District Leader certification programs, and engage in scholarship and service.

Applicants should possess an earned doctorate in educational leadership or a closely related area, P-12 or other significant teaching experience, administrative experience at the P-12 building level and/or district level, and knowledge of national standards and trends in educational leadership. The successful candidate should have experience in online teaching and be willing to teach online and/or hybrid courses. Particular expertise and/or interest in one of more of the following areas is expected: leadership, curriculum, assessment/evaluation, personnel management, school finance, school law, and/or supervision of instructional staff. Experience teaching and/or leadership at the secondary school level is a plus. Appreciation of and respect for the University's Catholic, Franciscan mission is expected.

Candidates who are ABD will be considered for the position with the understanding that degree requirements will be completed within two years of appointment. The applicant’s curriculum vita, letter of application, three reference letters and a sample of scholarly work are to be sent to: Dr. Nancy Casey, Acting Dean, School of Education; Box AB; St. Bonaventure, NY 14778. Electronic application materials may be sent to ncasey@sbu.edu
