Academic Quality

- The School of Arts and Sciences features sixteen departments and services most of the courses for our Honors Program. Students looking ahead to post-graduate study in the health care field may take advantage of the university’s Franciscan Health Care Professions Program. The school also offers numerous study abroad opportunities, multidisciplinary minors and a senior capstone experience.

- The School of Business is accredited by the Association for the Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), one of only 5% of business schools worldwide to hold this accreditation. Degrees offered include finance, marketing, management and the opportunity to earn a BBA in Accounting and an MBA in five years, all while qualifying for the CPA examination.

- The School of Education was recognized in 2014 as one of the nation’s top 25 innovative teacher education programs by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) and is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Education majors get more than 1,000 hours of observing and teaching experience in real classrooms.

- With six SBU graduates who have earned the top award in the field, the Pulitzer Prize, The School of Journalism and Mass Communication brings a world of expertise and professional resources to students through engagement with alumni; internship experiences locally, nationally, and internationally and through student media opportunities. Facilities include the Koop Television lab and a cable production truck.

Making A Difference

Social responsibility and service are not just buzzwords at St. Bonaventure, they’re woven into the fabric of our campus. Community service is a core Franciscan value and an integral part of the SBU tradition.

- Embrace It Africa - a Nonprofit Organization started by students at SBU focused on sustainable economic development in Southern Uganda.
- BonaResponds - formed in the weeks after Hurricane Katrina, its purpose is to help others through volunteering.
- ENACTUS - promotes partnerships between leaders in business and university students to make a difference in local communities.
- Warming House - one of the oldest student-run soup kitchens in the nation.
