Master’s Degree in Strategic Leadership

Extraordinary Leaders Make History

Do you possess a technical or other specialized background and now find yourself in a management role?

Do you see opportunity for career advancement on the horizon and want to be better prepared to seize it?

Are you already in a leadership role and looking for training to become the most positive, reflective and productive leader you can be?

A Master of Science in Strategic Leadership from St. Bonaventure University is a great way to hone your leadership skills and gain valuable professional marketability. Study with like-minded adults while you develop essential management strategies - you might even make some lifelong friends and professional contacts in the process.
Today’s Students
Like you, today’s graduate students are busy. They’re working. They have families. They volunteer. They’re being pulled in ten different directions at once. School often feels like an inconvenient but important direction in which to feel pulled. St. Bonaventure’s strategic leadership master’s degree program is fully online, because we get it – you have a lot going on.
That’s why we created a program that fits into your busy life, ensuring you don’t have to sacrifice your education or time with your family and friends. Today’s students want to have it all. At St. Bonaventure, we help you get it.

Tomorrow’s Executives
A master’s degree in strategic leadership (MSL) from St. Bonaventure equips you to lead your organization to greater success. You’ll receive personalized coaching and mentoring as you work toward your desired outcome while learning practical and theoretical aspects of leadership. The MSL will help you to:

- Develop a clear purpose in your leadership role
- Develop thinking strategies that promote growth and positive change
- Learn how to adapt and respond to global changes
- Develop essential problem solving skills
- Enhance your communication and conflict resolution skills
- Understand and articulate your personal ideal of ethical leadership

St. Bonaventure offers a unique online, team-based and experiential approach that helps you maximize your leadership potential.

Extraordinary Character
Being a leader means more than delegating. Extraordinary leaders make history. They work hard. They listen. They inspire others. At St. Bonaventure, we develop leaders of integrity – it’s part of our Franciscan tradition and it’s how we prepare our students to achieve success after graduation.
In a diverse and global business market, being an extraordinary leader takes extraordinary character.

Uniquely Bonaventure
Earning your degree from St. Bonaventure sets you on a path to success. St. Bonaventure offers excellent academics combined with a great reputation and an education centered on our strong Franciscan tradition. This means that your education has purpose; you’ll graduate with more than just a credential to add to your résumé.
Our interdisciplinary approach to strategic leadership means that you’ll have the benefit of learning from professors in the schools of business, journalism and mass communication, education and arts and sciences. You’ll learn through the use of cutting-edge communication channels and techniques, and that knowledge can then be applied to your own organization. And if you need help with courses or logistics along the way, you’ll get it - from faculty and/or our online student success coach.
Earning A Master’s Degree Is Hard Work

Really hard work. But we know you can do it! Here are just some of the benefits available to you as a St. Bonaventure University strategic leadership graduate student.

- Enroll as a full-time or part-time student
- Complete the program in one or two years
- Benefit from personalized coaching and mentoring that tailors your education to your needs
- Take just two, eight-week courses at a time as a full-time student

Faculty Spotlight

Kimberly Young, Psy.D.

Program Director, Master’s in Strategic Leadership program

Internet Addiction Treatment and Recovery Program

Dr. Kimberly Young is an internationally acknowledged expert and pioneer on Internet addiction and digital detoxification. In 1995, Young founded the Center for Internet Addiction and has served as director ever since. Young realized that U.S. was falling behind other nations in identifying and recognizing excessive Internet use as an addiction and treating it accordingly. In founding the Center for Internet Addiction, Young became one of the first and most well renowned world experts in that field. She has written numerous academic articles and book chapters, is an internationally known speaker and has been featured in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The London Times, USA Today, Good Morning America and ABC’s World News Tonight.

Dr. Young currently serves as a professor and program director for strategic leadership at St. Bonaventure. With her impressive credentials and pioneering leadership abilities, she brings a level of expertise that makes St. Bonaventure’s strategic leadership program a world-class education.
