What Is IMC?
Advertising, Digital Media, Social Media, Research, Public Relations- a smorgasbord of cutting-edge ideas that you can apply to a variety of career opportunities.

Create Your Brand
Recent grads, managers, salespeople, and even really wacky creative types. It doesn't matter what role you're in— you're likely looking to advance your career in some capacity.

That's why our IMC program focuses on the nuts and bolts of integrated marketing, but also on your personal and professional marketability. You need to strengthen your brand to take your career to the next level. For you, it's about more than marketing. It's about marketing yourself. Enter, our Five Pillars of Professional Marketability.

Pillar 1: Debate
Effective marketing often stems from lively debate and dialogue. Our IMC graduate programs promote that discussion, leading to breakthrough strategies and creative.

Pillar 2: Peer Study
You'll make great friends at St. Bonaventure. And those great friends will lead to some great brainstorming sessions, some great ideas, and ultimately, great IMC strategies and executions.

Pillar 3: Connections
With faculty and students spanning the globe, the St. Bonaventure program's network is very strong. Almost cult-like, in fact. In a really good way, of course.

Pillar 4: Reputation
You deserve a graduate degree from a school steeped in tradition. With a renowned Franciscan reputation for more than 150 years, our reputation is pretty solid.

Pillar 5: Confidence
A little confidence goes a long way toward your next big career move. That's why we arm our graduates with the confidence and expertise they need to pursue whatever career opportunity they desire.

Three Convenient Formats
Our IMC program is designed to meet the needs of those coming straight from undergraduate coursework or those returning to the classroom as a working professional.

Weekends @ our Buffalo Center Campus

Weeknights @ our Main Campus
Complete the program in two years, taking classes two nights per week beginning at 6 p.m. at our Main Campus in St. Bonaventure, N.Y.

100% Online
Enroll in our 100% online format, and complete the program in two years, or one year if you choose to take two courses simultaneously.

Real-World, Hands-On Opportunities
Imagine how impressed your colleagues will be when you tell them that you studied integrated marketing at Oxford University's Trinity College in England. Or that you studied international business and marketing in China. Those are just some of the opportunities where you'll have a chance to gain real-world, hands-on experience working with international clients and businesses. With an ever-increasing talent pool in a competitive job market, it's precisely those types of experiences that will allow you to stand out from all the rest.

Core IMC Courses
