

ART HISTORY

St. Bonaventure University invites applications for a tenure track faculty position in Art History beginning with the fall 2010 term, subject to final budget approval.

The successful applicant will: possess a completed Ph.D. in the field of Art History (A.B.D. with expected completion by August 2010 will be considered); provide evidence of research and teaching competence; be a specialist in ancient Greek and Roman art; be willing and able to teach survey courses in art history, including particularly the survey of art dealing with ancient civilizations. The candidate must also be willing to respect and uphold the mission of the University, as well as contribute to the multidisciplinary and honors tracks of the undergraduate core curriculum of the University. In addition, a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching, scholarship and service will be expected.

The applicant's curriculum vitae, letter of application, and the names and contact information of at least three professional references should be sent to: Dr. Eleanor Green, Ph.D; Dean, School of Arts & Sciences; St. Bonaventure University; St. Bonaventure, NY 14778.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

St. Bonaventure University is an equal opportunity employer committed to fostering diversity in its faculty, staff, and student body, and strongly encourages applications from the entire spectrum of a diverse community
