The Modern Languages Department at St. Bonaventure University invites applications for a tenure track Assistant Professor specializing in Latin American and Caribbean cultures and literatures, beginning in the fall 2010 term subject to final budget approval.

The successful candidate will be expected to possess a completed Ph.D. (although ABDs will be considered), native or near native command of Spanish, and evidence of research and teaching competence. This position requires the teaching of Spanish at the elementary and intermediate levels, teaching of literature and culture related to the field of Latin American and Caribbean studies, and courses in the University's Clare College core curriculum. The candidate will also fulfill additional duties such as service and advising. Experience with technology-based learning will be a plus. Interest in and experience with program assessment is strongly desired.

Please mail letter of application, curriculum vitae and three letters of reference to Dr. Eleanor Green; Dean, School of Arts & Sciences; St. Bonaventure University; St. Bonaventure, NY 14778. Applications can be sent electronically to egreen@sbu.edu.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Interviews will be conducted at the MLA convention.

St. Bonaventure University is an equal opportunity employer committed to fostering diversity in its faculty, staff, and student body, and strongly encourages applications from the entire spectrum of a diverse community.
