

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The gowns worn at Commencement reflect a tradition dating from the first universities founded in Europe almost 800 years ago. Because those seats of learning were established by religious orders, the characteristics of their dress at that time are retained, albeit in a somewhat modified form.

The colors that designate areas of study were established for the colleges and universities of the United States in 1895.

The hood, now worn symbolically, was formerly a practical part of the garment, worn over the head to protect the wearer from cold and the elements.

There are three types of robes:

The bachelor's gown is black with full sleeves.

The master's gown, also black, has long sleeves closed at the bottom and a slit midway, through which the wearers put their arms.

The doctor's gown is usually black, but other colors are also used. It is characterized by velvet facing on the front and velvet bars on the sleeves.

The trustees gowns are gray.

The colors used on all hoods, as well as on the velvet of the doctor's gown, indicate the area of study or type of degree.

You'll see these colors today on the hoods of St. Bonaventure University undergraduate and graduate candidates:

White: Bachelor and Master of Arts.

Gold: Bachelor and Master of Science.

Tan: Bachelor and Master of Business/Accountancy.

Crimson: Bachelor of Arts in Communication.

Light blue: Bachelor and Master of Science in Education.

Green: Bachelor and Master of Science in Health Professions.

Medicine Green: Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies

Slate blue: Master of Science in Occupational Therapy

Salmon pink: Master of Public Health

The predominant faculty hood color you'll see is deep blue, for Ph.D. The color of the lining of the faculty hoods indicates the institution from which their degrees were earned.

The tassel on the mortarboard, or cap, is black with the exception that the doctor's tassel is usually gold.

The president of St. Bonaventure is wearing the presidential medallion and chain, signifying the office.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Fr. Kevin Mullen, O.F.M.

Former Provincial Minister of Holy Name Province

Fr. Kevin Mullen, O.F.M., Ph.D., served on the Board of Trustees at St. Bonaventure from 2014 to 2023 while serving as the Provincial Minister of Holy Name Province, which merged last fall with five other U.S. Franciscan provinces to become the Province of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

During his time on the Board, Fr. Mullen offered the kind of invaluable insight and wisdom only a person with such vast experience in higher education and Franciscan life could provide to a university deeply committed to its Franciscan mission.

A 1975 graduate of Siena College, Fr. Mullen's experience at the Franciscan institution in suburban Albany came full circle in 2007 when he was named the 10th president of Siena, a position he held until Holy Name friars elected him as their provincial minister in 2014.

Fr. Mullen was introduced to Franciscan themes as a child in his hometown of Paterson, New Jersey, where the largest group of Franciscan Friars Minor in the country had its program for novices.

St. Bonaventure Church, just a few blocks from his home, embedded Franciscan values into the grammar school curriculum and his family nurtured his Franciscan spirit throughout his early life.

In June of 1975, Fr. Mullen was received as a member of the Order of Friars Minor. Four years later, he made his solemn profession of vows and in 1980 was ordained a Roman Catholic priest. He received his Master's of Divinity degree from Washington Theological Union and a Ph.D. in theology from The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Fr. Mullen's administrative and leadership experience reflects both the spirit and demonstration of a life guided by Franciscan values. He served as rector/guardian of St. Anthony Shrine in Boston from 1990-1999. He also chaired the Board of Directors of St. Francis House, hailed by Boston leaders and residents as a model for helping the homeless and marginalized.

He was guardian of the Franciscan Friary at Siena from 2005-2007 and director of the Franciscan Center for Service and Advocacy from 2005-2007. He was a member of the Siena College Board of Trustees from 1987-1996 and from 1999-2005.

KEYNOTE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Ed Bastian, Class of 1979

Chief Executive Officer, Delta Airlines

Ed Bastian, a 25-year Delta veteran, has been a leader in Delta's long-term strategy and a champion of putting Delta's shared values of honesty, integrity, respect, perseverance and servant leadership at the core of every decision.

Since Bastian was named CEO in 2016, Delta has become the world's most awarded airline, having been named the Wall Street Journal's top U.S. airline; the top-ranking airline in Fortune's World's Most Admired Companies; the most on-time global airline by FlightGlobal; the Platinum Award recipient for operational excellence by Cirium; among TIME100's Most Influential Companies; and a Glassdoor Best Place to Work.

Bastian's values-based leadership propelled the airline to become an industry leader and a trusted global brand, guided by empathy, humanity and devotion to service. He has helped steer Delta, which has more than 100,000 employees worldwide, through the most challenging periods of the company's history, including 9/11, bankruptcy and COVID-19.

In 2018, Fortune magazine named Bastian among "The World's 50 Greatest Leaders," and in 2019, he was elected to the membership of the Council on Foreign Relations. In 2021, amidst a global pandemic, Bastian was awarded for his executive leadership in FlightGlobal's 2021 Airline Strategy Awards and named among the Top 10 CEOs of 2021 in Glassdoor's Employees' Choice Awards as a leader who excelled at supporting their people.

Bastian was most recently honored by his peer CEOs and named Chief Executive magazine's 2023 Chief Executive of the Year. He was also named the 2024 Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

Bastian joined Delta in 1998, was named chief financial officer in 2005, and was appointed as company president in 2007. He previously held senior finance positions at Frito-Lay International and Pepsi-Cola International. Bastian started his career with Price Waterhouse.

A native of Poughkeepsie, New York, Bastian graduated from SBU in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 2008, he received an honorary degree from his alma mater.
