First Year Résumés

No, it's not too early! As a first year student you will need a résumé to apply for part-time jobs, summer jobs, scholarships, research opportunities, internships and more. Plus, if you have a résumé your first year at SBU, you can continually update it with your new experiences including clubs/organizations, internships, volunteer work, and employment. Furthermore, you never know when the right opportunity might present itself and you definitely want to be well prepared.

Did you know? Readers spend 10-20 seconds reviewing a resume to decide if the applicant is of interest. Follow these guidelines to make a strong first impression.

- Use action verbs to describe your experiences (action verb list included).
- List both technical skills and transferable skills.
- Sample resumes are included in this packet as guides and should not be copied in their entirety.
- Use the resume checklist (included) to assess the layout, appearance & content of your resume.

RÉSUMÉ CHECKLIST for FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

A résumé is your personal marketing material. A resume is intended to get you an interview, where you will have a chance to further describe what you can contribute to an organization and differentiate yourself from the competition. The key is to keep your resume well organized, concise, and accomplishment-focused.

Layout and Appearance	Yes/No	Comments
One page only in length, 10-12 font, use Times New Roman, Arial, Calibri, Helvetica or easy to read font, 0.5" to 1"inch margins.
Heading: contact information includes your name at the top of the page (should be largest font and in bold), mailing address, phone number, and professional email address.
Format: Looks uncluttered with plenty of white space between sections.
Statements start with action verbs and include key skills and major accomplishments. Use present tense for current jobs/experiences and past tense for previous jobs/experiences. Quantify when possible (i.e. number of people, items, or results.
3-5 bulleted statements per job/experience.
Résumé is completely free of spelling, punctuation, and grammatical errors.
Content	Yes/No	Comments
Recommended headings include: Education, Honors/ Awards (if applicable), Employment, Leadership/Activities, Volunteer/Service and Skills
Education includes your official SBU degree, expected graduation date (month/year), and GPA, if known, and above a 3.0. As first year students, be sure to include high school name, location, and date of graduation (month/year).
Honors/Awards includes achievements, recognitions, scholarships, and awards.
Employment includes organization name, location (city, state), job title, and dates of employment (month/year or season and year). Use action verbs to describe duties, responsibilities, and skills demonstrated.
Leadership/Activities includes campus, high school, community, and or civic associations, clubs, and volunteer work that demonstrate interpersonal, communication, leadership, team orientation, and time management skills.
Skills reflect technology, language, and other transferable competencies that directly relate to the position you're seeking.
