Army ROTC Overview

What is Army ROTC?

ROTC Commissions Army Officers that serve on active duty, in the National Guard, or in the Army Reserves after they obtain their bachelors degree and complete all required ROTC training.

Commissioned Officers will serve in a leadership position when they get to their first assignment. Through classroom instruction and lab training, Army ROTC prepares college students to be successful in that leadership role.

High School ROTC Scholarships

- 3 and 4 Year scholarships
- Scholarship Benefits:
 - 100% if tuition and mandatory fees
 - $1,200 per year for books
 - $420 monthly stipend
 - SBU Room and Board grant (covers the cost of standard dorm and meal plan)
- Opens to rising high school seniors on June 12th
- 3 scholarship boards: October, January, March
 - Each board offers scholarships to selected candidates
 - Students will get offers for 3 schools and they can choose which school they want to attend if they are accepted

Campus Based ROTC Scholarships
