

AN SBU THEATER GRAD TALKS ABOUT HER EXPERIENCE

2014 grad Tori Lanzillo recently Zoomed with one of our Intro to Theater classes and this is what she said...

"I loved the the theater program at St. Bonaventure. It was small but that's exactly what I wanted. I think that you get a lot of one-on-one attention; you get a lot more opportunities being a part of the theater scene there. And I loved that. It was just phenomenal. It gave me the chance to be able to actually do a lot of acting during undergrad and learn a lot and become very confident about being an actor. You know, it taught me the real ins and outs of being an actor. I feel like Bonaventure theater really taught me how to be confident and get my sea legs being on a stage and to be able to work with other people and be part of this big team. Because at St Bonaventure Theater you're not just acting, you're not just stage-managing---you're doing everything. You're getting an idea of how every little bit of theater works---which is really important, and really cool."

—Tori is an actor and voice artist in NYC.