The Current State of Culture in America: Navigating Your Way Through Other People’s Experiences

March 23, 2021
11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. via Zoom

Dr. Kimetta R. Hairston works in administration, academics and virtual engagement at Bowie State University in Columbia, Maryland.

She is an experienced curriculum specialist with a demonstrated history of working in the higher education industry. Her Ph.D. from the University of Hawaii was focused in curriculum and instruction, and she is skilled in the areas of nonprofit organizations, e-learning, program evaluation, academic advising, and educational technology.

She has served Bowie State as a curriculum and instruction specialist/professor of education, and as assistant to the president for strategic engagement.

She is sole proprietor of Critical Diverse Interventions, an independent diversity consulting service.

For more information about this presentation, email Dr. Latoya Pierce, Executive Director of Counselor Education at SBU and Spring Forum 2021 coordinator at lpierce@sbu.edu.

For the Zoom link and more information visit:

sbu.edu/springforum2021