NOMINATION FORM
St. Bonaventure University/Seneca Battalion
Army ROTC Hall of Fame

BACKGROUND

Established in 1997 by former Professor of Military Science LTC (R) Frank Martin, the St. Bonaventure University Army ROTC Hall of Fame recognizes those individuals who have:

- ◆ Demonstrated significant contributions to the improvement of the Seneca Battalion and the furthering of the standards and ideals that make the ROTC experience at St. Bonaventure unique and/or
- ◆ Achieved distinction in their chosen military or civilian profession that reflects well on the U.S. Army, the St. Bonaventure University Army ROTC program or ROTC Affinity

ELIGIBILITY

Any person eligible for membership in St. Bonaventure University Army ROTC Affinity is eligible for nomination to the Hall of Fame. Membership in ROTC Affinity is limited to:

- ◆ Alumni/ae of St. Bonaventure University and the Seneca Battalion's baccalaureate granting member institutions (Alfred University, Houghton College, University of Pittsburgh at Bradford) who earned commissions in the Regular Army, United States Army reserve or National Guard through the St. Bonaventure Army ROTC program.
- ◆ Individuals who have been officially affiliated with the University's Army ROTC program by their status as Army ROTC commissioned or noncommissioned officer cadre, Department of the Army civilians or members of the University's Academic Military Advisory Board.

- ◆ Individuals to whom the ROTC Affinity governing committee offers recognition as honorary members.

NOMINATION PROCEDURES

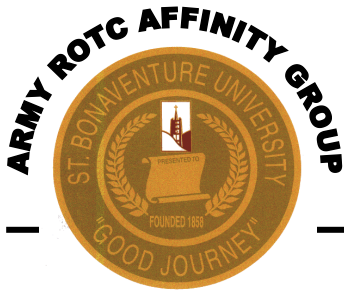

To nominate an eligible individual for inclusion in the Hall of Fame, any ROTC Affinity member may complete the information on page 2 of this form and return to The Professor of Military Science, Mr. Jim DiRisio and Rick Trietley '86 (addresses above). This form also will be available in electronic format on the St. Bonaventure University Army ROTC website. In either case, nominations must arrive at St. Bonaventure University before 30 October of the year nominated for induction.

SELECTION PROCESS

Upon reviewing all nominees, a selection committee will meet, normally in conjunction with the Military Science Department's fall awards ceremony, to select the member(s) who will be inducted into the Hall of Fame the following spring. The professor of military science will announce the names of the newly selected inductees at the fall awards ceremony.

RECOGNITION

An ROTC Affinity member will present each inductee with a framed certificate and the professor of military science will present each inductee with a Seneca Battalion coin that has been inscribed with a serial number and "H" designator for "Hall of Fame" at the Military Science Department's Spring Awards Ceremony. Additionally, members will have their names inscribed on a plaque that will be displayed in a location to be determined by ROTC Affinity.
