

The Burton

Pre-Conference / Pre-Game Tuesday, June 6th

Established in the early 1800s as a place for respite for travelers, The Burton was a typical tavern of the era with sleeping rooms above. Located in Allegheny, NY, and home to the famous "Burton Burger," its favorite neighbor is St. Bonaventure University, a love affair that extends back generations. Even today, before home basketball games, you will find a packed house of St. Bonaventure students, parents, and alums enjoying the moment and reliving the past. As they prepare for the game, their love for one another and passion for St. Bonaventure University overflows.

"Let's Go Bonas!"

Open June 6th-8th

NBA and NHL Playoff games will be televised
