

A photograph of the St. Bonaventure University campus at sunset. A tall, modern brick bell tower with a cross on top stands prominently in the center. In the foreground, a large brick wall features the university's name in large, raised letters. To the right, a modern brick building with large windows is visible. The sky is a warm orange and yellow, and the surrounding area is filled with green trees. A semi-transparent dark triangle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing text and the university logo.
