Updated Listing Visiting Assistant Professor – Philosophy

St. Bonaventure University's Department of Philosophy invites applications for a full-time, visiting position at the assistant professor level, beginning fall 2021, with a specialization in one of the following: Social and Political Philosophy, Philosophy of Nonviolence, or Philosophy of Law.

The successful candidate must be able to teach Introduction to Ethics and courses in one or more of the following areas: social and political philosophy, philosophy of nonviolence, legal reasoning, legal ethics, mock trial, symbolic logic, or critical thinking. The teaching load is twelve credit hours per semester.

We are looking first and foremost for an excellent teacher. Candidates who also have a promising research agenda are desirable. The Department expects to be hiring tenure-track in the near future, and the person we hire for this visiting position will be welcome to apply for the tenure-track position. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in hand by August 2021.

Founded in 1858, St. Bonaventure University is a Catholic university dedicated to educational excellence in the Franciscan tradition. We are a predominately undergraduate, liberal arts based institution with 2000 students located in the Allegheny Mountains near Olean, NY. St. Bonaventure University emphasizes small classes, close engagement with students, and a mission-based liberal arts curriculum.

The Philosophy Department is committed to enhancing the diversity of our faculty and welcomes applications from under-represented groups and members of all faiths. Applicants should send the following to hr@sbu.edu: curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness such as summaries of student and peer evaluations, contact information for three professional references, and a cover letter that discusses your approach to teaching and qualifications for the position given the description of responsibilities above. The deadline for application is January 11, 2021. Please address specific questions regarding the position to Dr. Russell Woodruff, Chair of Philosophy, woodruff@sbu.edu

St. Bonaventure University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity educational institution. It is guided by the principle that equal opportunity means more than equal employment opportunity, and that access to facilities and services shall be available to all people regardless of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, veteran status, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identity/expression. This principle is applicable to every member of the St. Bonaventure community, both students and employed personnel at every level, and to all facilities and services.

In light of its commitment to create and maintain a safe learning and working environment, employment with St. Bonaventure University requires successful completion of a background screening.
