*Mandatory attendance is required so that an analysis of reading strengths and needs can be assessed.
Summaries of results from formal and informal literacy assessments will be explained during the first or last half-hour of your child's session on Wednesday, February 27th. During these teacher/parent meetings, children will gather in the greeting room for an activity. Parents are invited to stay for the lesson this day with their child.

A celebratory closing ceremony and personal meetings with teacher, parents/guardians, and child will take place to share an individualized educational reading plan and an I love reading kit designed for your child.
